Ex markets the spot

STACEY Bronfman (inset), the ex-wife of billionaire Seagram heir Matthew Bronfman, is selling her modern Hamptons home for $11.5 million. The property, at 75 Sams Creek Road in Bridgehampton, is two blocks from the beach. It was not only designed by architect Norman Jaffe, known for contemporary, sculptural homes on Long Island — it also served as one of Jaffe's homes. The five-bedroom, four-bathroom home has water views from every room, two stone fireplaces, a pool and a private dock on Sams Creek, which leads to Mecox Bay and the ocean. The listing broker is Elliman's William Wolff.
